You are also responsible for making available to us, as and when required, all the company's books of account and all other records and related information, including minutes of all management and shareholders' meetings.
- 1.2 We have a statutory responsibility to report to the members whether in our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and of the profit or loss for the year and whether they comply with the Companies Ordinance (or other relevant legislation). In arriving at our opinion, we are required to consider the following matters, and to report on any in respect of which we are not satisfied:
  - (a) whether proper books of account have been kept by the company;

  - (c) whether we have obtained all the information and explanations which we think necessary for the purpose of our audit.

In addition, there are certain other matters which, according to the circumstances, may need to be dealt with in our report. For example, where the financial statements do not give full details of directors' remuneration or of loans to officers, the Companies Ordinance requires us to disclose such matters in our report.

In planning and performing our audit work we shall take account of this supervision. Further, we may ask additionally for confirmation in writing that all the transactions undertaken by the company have been properly reflected and recorded in the books of account, and our audit report on your company's financial statements may refer to this confirmation.
